Examiner Lori B. Amerson 571-273-4971

Sir:

In response to the Interview Summary mailed April 27, 2005, please favorably consider the following Statement of Interview Summary and the enclosures mentioned therein.

STATEMENT OF INTERVIEW SUMMARY

On April 25, 2005, Kathryn Kniep (assistant to Irving M. Weiner, Attorney for Applicant) conducted a telephone interview with Examiner Lori Amerson.

Examiner Amerson stated that there is a two-month time frame for filing an appeal brief from the filing date of the Notice of Appeal, but that an additional five months could be purchased for an extension of time.

With regard to the Amendment-C, Ms. Kniep gave the following synopsis:

On August 3, 2004 the Amendment-C responsive to the Office Action of May 4, 2004 was faxed to the fax number of the Examiner Nicholas Lucchesi, Group Art Unit 3764 at fax number 703-308-3139. The Amendment-C was accompanied by a Certificate of Mailing which indicated that the document had been faxed to the above number on August 3, 2004.

A facsimile report (copy enclosed) from the applicant's representative's fax machine was also placed in the client file, indicating that 19 pages (the number of pages of Amendment-C) were faxed to that fax number on that date.

On October 1, 2004, Mr. Weiner spoke by telephone with Examiner Nicholas Lucchesi who said the Amendment -C had been received and told Mr. Weiner to call new Examiner Glen Tan at 703-605-4354 in a week's time. On October 5, 2004, Mr. Weiner called Examiner Tan and left a message to return the call.

On November 4, 2004, Ms. Kniep telephoned Examiner Glen Tan and left another message on his voice mail. At 9:15 on November 4, 2004 Examiner Tan returned the call and stated he was not the examiner in the case; he referred Ms. Kniep to Examiner Justine Yu at 703-307-2675; he stated Examiner Yu was moving offices that day, and was also the moving coordinator; and on November 5, 2004, her number would change to 571-272-4835.

At 10:07 on November 4, 2004, Ms. Kniep received a phone call from Examiner Yu who stated she had all of her files packed, but did not have a record of receiving the Amendment-C on her in-line system. She said to re-fax the amendment, along with a copy of the fax report to 703-872-9306 and there should be no late fees. Ms. Kniep pointed out that November 4, 2004 was the six-month deadline and Ms. Yu said that she understood that.

On November 4, 2004, Ms. Kniep faxed a Second Facsimile (copy enclosed) of Amendment-C to 703-872-9306, also with a Certificate of Mailing (copy enclosed) indicating that it was faxed to the number above. Facsimile report is also enclosed.

On December 15, 2004, an Advisory Action was received, stating that only the November 4, 2004 cover letter, and not the Amendment-C had been received.

On January 4, 2005, Mr. Weiner filed by fax to 703-872-9306 five pages of material (copy enclosed) including a cover page, Notice of Appeal with form PTO-2038 for fee of $250, and a Petition for Extension of Time under 37 CFR 1.135(b) – 3 months with Form PTO-2038 for fee $510. Enclosed is 1/4/2005 PTO Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission.

On April 22, 2005 Ms. Kniep phoned Examiner Yu, left a message on her voice mail, and requested an urgent reply.

On April 25, 2005 Ms. Kniep received a telephone call from Examiner Yu who stated she is no longer the supervisor of the art unit in question. Ms. Kniep was transferred to Mr. Hewson, who was the current Supervisor and he referred Ms. Kniep to Examiner Lori Amerson, the current Examiner, at 571-272-4971.

Ms. Kniep relayed the above synopsis of activity to Examiner Amerson. Examiner Amerson stated that the Appeal Brief must be filed two months from the date of Notice of Allowance, but that it was possible to purchase up to five more months extension, through July of 2005.

Examiner Amerson also stated that the Amendment-C needs to be re-sent to the official fax line, along with proof that a copy was faxed in August, 2004. Ms. Kniep phoned Examiner Yu and left a message.

On April 27, 2005 Ms. Kniep again phoned Ms. Yu who stated she was not the Examiner in the case at the time the Amendment-C was filed. Nicholas Lucchesi, Art Unit 3700 was Examiner at that time. Ms. Kniep phoned Examiner Lucchesi and left a detailed message.

On April 27, 2005 Ms. Kniep telephoned Examiner Lucchesi again at 571-272-3700. He did not believe he would have the Amendment-C on his fax data, but stated that he felt the Certificate of Facsimile on the original Amendment-C would be adequate proof that it was faxed August 3, 2004.

He suggested that Ms. Kniep fax the Amendment-C and the August 3, 2004 Certificate of Facsimile directly to Examiner Amerson's fax line. Ms. Kniep pointed out that Examiner Amerson had said it should be faxed to the official fax line. Examiner Lucchesi said perhaps that was what Examiner Amerson would prefer.

Examiner Lucchesi also said that if there was any difficulty with Examiner Amerson accepting the Certificate of Facsimile as proof, applicant's attorney should discuss it with Mr. Hewson, Supervisor of Art Unit 3674.

At this point, it is respectfully submitted that we have two conflicting PTO statements regarding the Amendment-C.

In the October 1, 2004 telephone call between Mr. Weiner and Examiner Lucchesi, Examiner Lucchesi stated that the Amendment-C had been received.

In the November 4, 2004 call from Examiner Yu to Ms. Kniep, Examiner Yu indicated she had no record of receiving the Amendment-C.

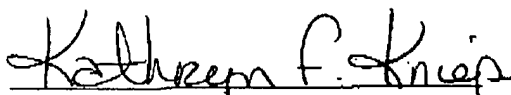

A copy of the Amendment-C, together with its Certificate of Mailing indicating that it was faxed to the Examiner Lucchesi's fax number on August 3, 2004 and signed by Ms. Kniep is attached.

Applicant respectfully requests that the December 15, 2004 Office Action stating that the Amendment - C had not been received be withdrawn, and the Amendment-C be entered as timely.

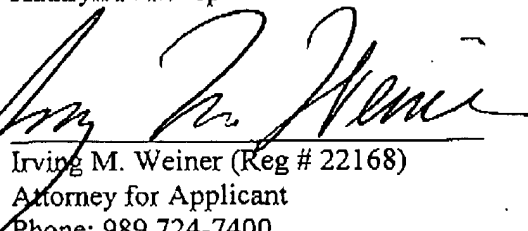

Applicant further requests that because the Amendment-C was faxed to the Examiner and received by Examiner Lucchesi on August 3, 2004, the January 4, 2005 Notice of Appeal and Request for Extension of Time was not necessary and accordingly should be withdrawn and a refund of fees be made to Weiner & Burt, P.C.

Reconsideration is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn F. Kniep
